

A large, dense crowd of people is gathered for a protest. Many individuals are holding up signs and a Quebec flag. The signs express various political and social messages, including opposition to the Prime Minister and support for civil liberties. The atmosphere appears to be one of active participation and public demonstration.

Protesters gathered in downtown Montreal Sunday, calling on the government to revoke the vaccine passport.

Some held signs reading "No to Medical Discrimination," "Stop COVID Vaccine Propaganda" and "My Body, My Choice."

Several waved large Quebec flags above the crowd.

Quebec opposition parties have also denounced the provincial government's refusal to hold a debate regarding the vaccine passport, saying it reflects a larger problem with its use of emergency powers.
